

1 the Whole?

2 DELEGATE PENNIMAN: I have no comment to
3 enlighten. I can state my prejudices would be for the 4 traditional method of using it, C-o-m-p-t.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Morgan.

6 DELEGATE MORGAN: That would be my inclination,
7 too, to use the spelling as existing since the Constitution
8 of 1867, and not change the spelling at this particular
9 time.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Dukes.

11 DELEGATE DUKES: I want to speak in opposition
12 to the amendment, Mr. President.

13 I would like to say to Delegate Stern and Dele-
14 gate Finch the only thing that impresses me more than the 15 Women Leaguers is the Washington Post editorial on CPA's.
16 I am certainly happy we have two of them in the delegation.
17 Nonetheless, it seems to me that the word, Controller,
18 applies to someone who controls something. I don't know
19 about the Dictionary. The word, Comptroller, nobody knows
20 what that means and the present status of Louie's job, I
21 think, is very appropriate. Therefore, I would urge that
